Barcelona, May 31. N. S.

THE 22d Inſtant 10 Tranſport-ſhips, with Land Forces on board, ſailed from hence for Valentia, under Convoy of the Leopard, Garland, and Faulkland. The 29th his Excellency the Earl of Peterborow, with the Confederate Fleet under his Command, ſailed that way, having on board the Foot that could be ſpared from hence: The beſt part of the Horſe are gone towards that Place by Land. The King of Spain intends to be going thither the 6th of the next Month with 4000 Horſe. Theſe Troops are all to rendezvous near Valentia, and from thence to march to Madrid. The Fleet will probably, after the Troops on board are landed, ſail towards Alicant and Cartagena, to encourage and countenance the Inhabitants of that Coaſt, who appear very deſirous of an Opportunity of ſhaking off the French Yoke, and returning under the Dominion of the Houſe of Auſtria, in the Perſon of King Charles the Third. Brigadier-General Stanhope, Envoy Extraordinary from Her Majeſty of Great Britain to the King of Spain, had a private Audience of his Majeſty the 25th. A Reinforcement of 600 Engliſh Foot and 1000 Neapolitans is ſent to Girona; and the neceſſary Directions are given for putting that Place into a good Poſture of Defence, which will greatly contribute to the Security of this Province. The French Forces are retired into Rouſſillon with great Precipitation: They Shipp'd off 900 of their ſick and wounded Men at St. Felix de Quixols, and were obliged to leave behind them part of the little Artillery they had carried away with them from before this City, and ſome of their Wagons, and were much harraſſed in their March by the Miquelets, who were continually skirmiſhing with their Rear and Flank.

Genoa, June 12. Two Engliſh Men of War arrived here this week from Barcelona, on board one of which came Mr. Methuen, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the Duke of Savoy. They bring an Account, That the Confederate Fleet commanded by the Earl of Peterborow was ſailed from thence for Denia, with a conſiderable number of Foot, which was to be landed there, the King of Spain with the Horſe going the ſame way by Land; and that theſe Troops are to rendezvous at Valentia, and to march from thence to Madrid.

Vienna, June 16. Mr. Stepney, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary, and the Count de Rechteren, who has the ſame Character from the States General, went from Tyrnau the 6th Inſtant to Newhauſel, where they had a Conference with Prince Ragotzi, and the other Chiefs of the Malecontents, who had been aſſembled there ever ſince the 20th paſt. The Malecontents afterwards ſent their Deputies to Tirnau, who did there on the 13th deliver their Demands to the Mediators; and the Mediators preſented them laſt night at Presbourg to the Biſhop of Oſnaburg, his Imperial Majeſty's Firſt Commiſſioner. An Anſwer is preparing to them; and in the mean time the Mediators are come hither.

Weſel, June 25. The King of Pruſſia left Hanover the 20th Inſtant, having had all the Honours paid him in that Court which are due to his high Rank and Dignity; and paſſing thro' Minden, Hervord, Bileveld, Hamin, Lunen, and ſeveral other Towns, arrived here the 23d; and has been attended here by great Numbers of the Nobility and Gentry, and of Deputies from the neighbouring Regencies. The Prince Royal, who ſtay'd at Hanover ſome days after his Majeſty, is expected here this evening. His Majeſty intends to be going ſhortly to Cleves.

Paris, June 26. The Court is now at Marli, and will continue there till the 3d of next Month. The King has changed the Generals of his ſeveral Armies: The Duke of Orleans is to command in Italy, in the room of the Duke of Vendoſme, and the Marſhal de Villars is to ſerve under him, whoſe place in Alſace is to be ſupplied by the Marſhal de Marſin. The Duke of Vendoſme is to have the Command of our Army in Flanders, from which the Marſhal de Villeroy is to be removed. They write from the Duke de la Feuillade's Camp before Turin, That the Attack of the Citadel of that Place was vigorouſly carried on, and it made as brave a Reſiſtance; That the Dutcheſs and Princeſſes of Savoy retired from thence the 15th Inſtant, and are gone to Coni; and that the Duke of Savoy is alſo marched out of Turin with a Body of Horſe, having left in that City a very ſtrong Gariſon, and well provided with all Neceſſaries for its Defence.

Utrecht, June 29. N. S. The 22th Inſtant my Lord Halifax had his Audiences of Leave of the Elector and Electreſs Dowager of Hanover, and the reſt of the Princes and Princeſſes of his Electoral Highneſs's Family; in which Audiences they gave his Lordſhip all poſſible Marks of their Reſpect and Gratitude towards Her Majeſty of Great Britain, of their Affection and Eſteem for the Engliſh Nation, and of their Value for his Lordſhip's Perſonal Merit. His Lordſhip left Hanover the next day, and arrived here yeſterday in the evening. His Lordſhip intends very ſuddenly to go to the Army to wait upon the Duke of Marlborough, and from thence will proceed on his Journey home.

From his Grace the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Rouſſelaer, June 28. N. S. This Evening came Letters from Brigadier Cadogan, with an Account, that he joined the Troops before Dendermonde the 26th Inſtant with a Detachment of thoſe from Audenarde; and the Bombs having ſet the Town on fire in ſeveral places, he had laſt night, by the Advice of the Marquis de Terazena, written a Letter to the Governor, Monſieur Delvall, to acquaint him, That the Gariſon was to expect no other Conditions than to remain Priſoners of War, if they perſiſted any longer to defend the Place: Whereupon the Governor deſired a Ceſſation of Arms for 24 Hours, to aſſemble and conſult with his Officers, which was granted; ſo that we expect to hear the Iſſue to morrow. Monſieur d'Auverquerque intended to break Ground before Oſtende laſt night. My Lord Duke has ordered the Troops of Pruſſia and Hanover to advance to Aloſt, where they will be at hand either to cover Bruſſels or join his Grace, as there may be occaſion.

Hague, June 29. N. S. The Standards, Colours and Kettle Drums, taken in the late glorious Action at Rammelies, which fell to our ſhare, were lately brought hither, and hung up in the great Hall in the Court. Letters from Paris ſay, the French Court is under great Perplexity how to reſtore their Affairs, as it appears by the late Alteration of their Generals, and by the Uncertainty of all the Meaſures they take in relation to the preſent Conjuncture.

Dublin, June 18. Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices have cauſed a Body of the Forces of this Kingdom to aſſemble, and form a Camp on the Curragh of Kildare, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Langſton and Major General Ecclin; and my Lord Cutts, Commander in Chief of all the Forces here under his Grace the Duke of Ormond, is preparing to go to the Camp, with a Deſign to ſtay there ſome days, in order to review thoſe Troops.

Windſor, June 23. His Grace the Duke of Somerſet, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge, attended by the Vice-Chancellor, ſeveral Heads of Colleges, Doctors in their Scarlet, and others, preſented to Her Majeſty a moſt dutiful and loyal Addreſs from the ſaid Univerſity, congratulating Her Majeſty upon the late ſignal and glorious Victory of Her Majeſty's Forces, and thoſe of Her Allies, under the moſt Excellent and truly Heroick Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; which is ſo ſurprizingly great, that as no Words are ſufficient to expreſs it, ſo it has even prevented their moſt forward Hopes and Expectations. They acknowledge, that the Glory of Reducing the Exorbitant Power of France, and Settling the Ballance of Europe, ſeems by Divine Providence reſerved to Her Majeſty; by whoſe wiſe Councils at home, and the aſtoniſhing Progreſs of Her Victorious Arms abroad, the Arbitrary Invader of his Neighbours Territories is brought to ſo low an Ebb, that he muſt hence-forward be anxiouſly ſolicitous to preſerve his own. They further take this Occaſion humbly to offer their repeated Aſſurances of a moſt inviolable Fidelity to Her Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and the firmeſt Adherence to Her juſt and Rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms; as alſo to the Succeſſion as ſettled in the Proteſtant Line; beſeeching the great God, by whom Kings Reign, that Her Majeſty may long continue (as She is) the brighteſt Example of ſincere unaffected Piety, the Security and Ornament of the Eſtabliſh'd Church, the Safeguard of the State, the Delight of Her Subjects, the Terror of Her Enemies, the Support of Her Allies; and that Her Reign over us may be as laſting and proſperous, as to them and all good Men it is dear and deſirable.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and to return the following Anſwer;

I Thank the Univerſity, and take their Expreſſions of Duty to Me very kindly; and they may always depend on My Protection.

An humble and loyal Addreſs upon the ſame Occaſion, from the Biſhop and Clergy of the Diocеſe of Chicheſter, has been preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

Kenſington, June 24. Her Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs arrived here this Evening from Windſor.

Kenſington, June 26. The following moſt dutiful and loyal Addreſſes, congratulating Her Majeſty upon the moſt glorious and happy Succeſſes of the Arms of Her Majeſty and Her Allies, and more eſpecially thoſe under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocеſe of Peterborough: Preſented by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.
